

Dear Church Family,

Hopefully you will be as excited about getting this unique devotional as we have been in putting it together over the past several months. "Twelve Steps Together" will lead us through 2012 with a 365 daily devotional guide that our staff has compiled for each of you.

We have intentionally kept these to just a couple of paragraphs and tried to make them thought provoking as you start each new day. Please know this was not an easy assignment for the contributing staff as each one had to do forty-six devotionals.

I sure hope as you read the devotions that you are blessed by their thoughts and will let them know your appreciation of them. Also, please pray specifically for the staff member who wrote that daily devotion.

So let's begin January 1st, as a church family, as we take these "Twelve Steps Together" in 2012!

Love in Christ,

Garry Ragsdale
